New York—WASHINGTON—Paris

Special Opening of Easter Millinery.

THE first days of this week will be devoted to a display of Hats designed especially for Easter.

Paris Models, Dress Hats, American Models, Toques, Bonnets, Sailors, Mourning Hats, Misses' and Children's Hats.

A comprehensive showing, which will include the latest Parisienne ideas. A showing so broad in scope that there must be something to suit every one.

The time has passed when a woman must wear a certain style hat, regardless of whether it is becoming, just because it is stylish.

Now everything is taken into consideration. The style of the hat particularly. Hats are planned for the women who affect straight, severe lines in the dressing of the hair. There are hats for the fluffy coiffure, for the directoire style, &c. Becomingness is the keynote of every hat.

The latest ideas in millinery emphasize the fact that this is to be a great lower season. Scarcely a hat is seen without flowers used in some way.

Strich plumes combined with flowers is a favorite trimming, and always gives a handsome effect. The use of filmy lace materials makes this season's millinery unusually light and airy.

Libbon is a great factor in trimmings. Especially so in misses' and children's hats. The steamer effect, which is so stylish, is seen to best advantage in juvenile millinery.

Bonnets and toques for elderly women are designed on conservative but elegant lines, and never were they more beautiful.

Hats for mourning wear simplicity must always predominate, but in Mourning Hats simplicity is gained through the most beautiful mourning materials and trimmings so deftly made that the result is more than pleasing.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Postmaster General and Mrs. Meyer Lease Home.

HOUSE OF COLONIAL TYPE

Baroness von Graffenried and Due de Chaulnes Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shonts at Theater Party—Miss Fox's Engagement Is Announced. The Gentlemen's Sale Now Open.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Meyer have just leased for two years the residence on Connecticut avenue and S street erected a short time ago by Mr. and Mrs. Dickenson Jewett, of New York. The house is a large one, of pure colonial type, facing on S street and quite within the Dupont Circle neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Jewett and family will pass the summer at their country home on the Hudson, and in the autumn propose going abroad. They have resided in Washington for the past five years, but never identified themselves with society, so that their residence, during the occupancy by the Postmaster General and Mrs. Meyer, will be practically a new home opened to the fashionable world.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Shonts entertained at a dinner and theater party last evening, complimentary to the Baroness von Graffenried and the Due de Chaulnes, both of Paris, who are now the guests of the Shontses. The company included the German Ambassador and Baroness von Stenberg, the Viscount and Viscountess de Martel, of the French Embassy, Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, Miss Isabel May, the Misses Shonts, the Viscount Charles de Chambrun, Mr. Rudowitz, of the German Embassy; Mr. Hamann von Graffenried, and Mr. Chester Kerr.

The Baroness von Graffenried and her son will remain in Washington some time. The former was Miss Gertrude Wells, of New York, but for many years resided in Paris.

The Gentlemen's Sale, always a feature of social interest, opened auspiciously yesterday, and will continue all week at 730 Seventeenth street, where practically the entire house is used for the display of dainty needle-work and a particularly large stock of home-made pickles, preserves, and confectionery.

Luncheon is served daily from noon until 2 o'clock, and tea every afternoon after 4.

Mrs. George Marye entertained at luncheon yesterday complimentary to Mrs. Whittell, of San Francisco, who has been passing some time at the New Willard.

At the marriage of Miss Jane Miller Stotsenburg, daughter of the late Col. John M. Stotsenburg, U. S. A., who lost his life in the Philippines, to Capt. Leon B. Kromer, U. S. A., which takes place to-morrow at the home of the bride's mother, the attendants will be: Lieut. R. F. Jackson and the bride's sister, Miss Laura Stotsenburg. Rev. Herbert Scott Smith, of St. Margaret's Church, will officiate, and Mr. Richard James Ely, of New York, will give the bride away.

The engagement is announced of Miss Eusebia Fox, daughter of Mr. William C. Fox, Minister to Ecuador, to Mr. James McDonald, of Orange, N. J. The name named for the marriage, which is, however, expected to take place in the coming summer.

The Chinese Minister is making a short visit in New York, where he was the guest of honor last evening at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morton at their Park avenue home.

Baron Karl von Griska, formerly Counselor of the Austrian Legation in Mexico in this city, and now Minister to Mexico, arrived at his new post a few days ago, accompanied by the Baroness von Griska and their two small children.

Baroness von Griska, who is an extremely handsome woman, was formerly Miss Helen King, of Baltimore, whose success in the diplomatic circle has been most pronounced.

Another young American matron presiding over a foreign legation in Mexico is Mme. Gregorio de Wolfart, wife of the Minister from Russia, who, as Miss Helen Tisdell, enjoyed a great belatedship in Washington.

The First Secretary of the Spanish Legation and Mme. Pastor have closed their house on Q street and gone to Atlantic City, preparatory to sailing for Europe, where they will pass the summer.

Miss Lota Robinson has gone to New York, but will return to Washington for the Easter season. Miss Robinson has an apartment at the Cordova, where she has passed the greater part of the winter.

Col. and Mrs. Charles S. Brown will open their house Saturday afternoon for a drawing-room talk on the work of the Associated Charities, when Mr. C. F. Weller and Miss Green will be the speakers.

The purpose of the three meetings is to make the public more familiar with the conditions among the poor, and the character of the work done by the Associated Charities. The board of managers believe their whole problem is an educational one; that is, that in so far as reasonable members of the community can be made to understand the work of the Associated Charities, there will be less difficulty in securing both the money and the volunteer personal service which are so greatly needed.

This particular meeting was originally planned for this afternoon, but has been unavoidably deferred.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., will close their house at Aiken next week, when they come North. They will stop in Washington for some time, en route to their country home at Westbury, L. I., and, as usual, will be among the prominent guests at the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club at Benning.

Representative Butler Ames and his sister, Miss Ames, of Lowell, Mass., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Flagler, at the Florida home of the latter, will arrive in Washington to-day for a short visit en route to the North.

Miss Edith Sanger and Mr. Carlisle have joined Mr. and Mrs. Melville E. Ingalls at Palm Beach.

Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams entertained a dinner party of young people on Sunday evening, when their guests were Capt. and Mrs. Summerlin, Miss Terry, Miss Clagett, Miss Butlerland, and Miss Colton. Mr. John Barrett, Mr. William Marrow, Capt. Harding, Capt. Gilmore, Mr. Jerome Bonaparte, and Miss Juliette Williams.

Miss Grace Little, of Kensington, Md., celebrated St. Patrick's anniversary Saturday evening, the feature of the entertainment being a "blind euchre." At a late hour dainty refreshments were served in the parlor, which was prettily decorated with suggestions of the day.

The winners of the euchre were: Lady's best prize, Miss Eckhardt; gentlemen's first prize, Mr. Gower; lady's booby prize, Miss Williams, and gentlemen's booby prize, Mr. Boynton.

Those present were Mrs. Lewis Boynton, Miss Sude Kinner, Miss Sarah J. Williams, Miss Alva Jones, Miss Mary Little, Miss Amy C. Eckhardt, Miss Grace Little, Mr. Lewis Boynton, Mr. Walter Perry, Mr. Tom Perry, Mr. Will Gower, Mr. Lewis Wilson, Mr. Edward Little, Mr. Mirza Ahmad Eshabab, of the Persian Legation, and Mr. John Little.

Pay Director Charles W. Littlefield, U. S. N., is one of the recent Washington arrivals at the Shepherd's Hotel, in Cairo, which resort is having a very interesting spring season.

Mrs. W. C. Eustis has gone to New York, to remain until Thursday.

Mrs. P. Lee Phillips, who has been among the grip sufferers, is sufficiently improved to go out for a short time each day.

Mrs. T. J. Palmer and Miss Fannie Coon leave this afternoon for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will visit Mrs. A. R. Nutt, Mrs. Palmer's sister, and then they will go to Palm Beach.
